

Clear into the Future

A DUPONT DELAWARE ESTUARY INITIATIVE

2008 Grants ($330,000 Total)

Organization	Focus Area
National Fish and Wildlife Foundation	Delaware Watershed research and restoration projects (begun in calendar 2007, continued into 2008) <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Project PORTS: Promoting Oyster Restoration Through Schools (OSRP, Rutgers, the State University of NJ)▪ Building on Success: Continued Habitat Restoration at Milford Neck (The Nature Conservancy)▪ Salem Brownfields Waterfront Planning Project (City of Salem)▪ North Delaware Greenway Ecological Restoration (Pennsylvania Environmental Council)
Pennsylvania Environmental Council	Support for a recreational user guide to the upper Delaware Estuary, and construction of a Delaware Water Trail.
New Jersey Audubon Society, Conserve Wildlife Foundation of New Jersey	Support for creation and ongoing maintenance of a network of volunteers to use the Shorebird Resightings Website, and to place survey data into an open-access web database
The Nature Conservancy, Delaware Chapter	Support for Creation of Trail System/Observation Tower at the Ponders Tract property in Delaware
Pennsylvania Sea Grant, Penn State University	Support for educational field programs for youth targeting the Delaware Estuary
Seaboard Fisheries Institute	Support for Symposium on Atlantic Sturgeon in the Delaware Estuary
Delmarva Ornithological Society	Support for purchase of critical habitat for the red knot in Delaware
Delaware State University	Graduate student fellowship with research focus on the Delaware Estuary (may be split between 2 students)
Drexel University	Graduate student fellowship with research focus on the Delaware Estuary
University of Delaware	2 graduate student fellowships with research focus on the Delaware Estuary
University of Delaware	University seminar series with focus on the Delaware Estuary
Rutgers University	2 graduate student fellowships with research focus on the Delaware Estuary
Rutgers University	University seminar series with focus on the Delaware Estuary